ORIOLES REGAINED THEIR FORM. Senators Rather Roughly Treated by the Monumental City Birds.

BALTIMORE, July 31.-It was a standoff today between a crazy quilt and the Baltimore Washington baseball game. Umpire Hoagland, whe cast a spell on the Orioles Saturday week, removed the hoo-doo, and the home and he now expects the team to regain first place. The feature of the game was that the Baltimores scored a double and three singles in the first inning and not a run. Attendance.

START SETTLED THE RACE

Benjamin Presented with the Last Event Through Cassidy's Liberality.

POUR PAVORITES FELL DOWN

Rescue and Save the Public from a Waterloo-In the Fifth Race Benjamin Given Five Lengths Advantage,

Those who had a bet down on Benjamin to win the last race yesterday at the Island course owe Starter Cassidy a debt of gratitude for enabling them to cash. The starter dropped the flag with Benjamin five full-sized the in advance of his field, and as a re sult this handicap was too great to be overcome by the other starters. Benjamin winning in a gallop. The backers of Lilly M. had par come by the other starters, Benjamin winning in a galiop. The backers of Lilly M. had particular reason to feel sore, as the mare, on form, should have won the race hands down, but under the circumstances the best she could do was to finish second.

Outside of the Benjamiu episode the principal feature of the afternoon's entertainment was the downfail of four first choices, Traitor being the only favorite to score. As good as 4 to 5 could be obtained against Traitor, there being a decided inclination to get on Detroit, the latter going to the post at 6 to 5. It was no race for Traitor, who won handily by a length from Detroit.

In the opening event there were five starters and at various stages of the betting each ruled favorite. A great tip was out on Forest Bird, who closed first choice, with Molite Davis next in favor. The latter took the lead in the stretch and won easily from Successor. Forest Bird got away fourth and never improved his position. Senator was always favorite for the third, with Duke of Fiel and Imported Jene second and third choices respectively. Needmore cut out the running to the stretch when Jene ran into first and won easily by two lengths from Needmore, who got the place a head before Vocanite. Senator was an indifferent fifth.

Gloster was backed down to even money in the third, but at the close 7 to 5 was obtainable. Quartermaster remained at 2, while C. O. D. was a strong third choice. The latter made a runaway race of it, leading all the way, and winning in a canter by five lengths from Quartermaster, with Gloster a half before Mary R. from Quartermaster, with Gloster a half be-from Quartermaster, with Gloster a haif before Mary R.

Lilly M. opened at 8 to 5 and was backed to 6 to 5 in the fifth, while Benjamin was also played, his odds being 8 to 5 at post time.
The start gave the race to Benjamin, he winning by five lengths, with Lilly M. three posts in front of Verbia.

The attendance was not above the average,
but the betting was fairly active. The track was in prime shape, and as all five races were run over the regular track the people had full view of the start as well as the finish. Summaries:

One visitor played eleven races yesterday and exhibited the money to prove he cashed eleven times.

Mr. Bowman rode Gloster and Gonzales as if he was afraid to hurt the other boys' feel-ings by beating them. Squire Maddox made a rush into the ring just before the third race and Mary B.'s price never changed a hair.

Lilly M. was due to win, but the start killed whatever chance she had and second was the best possible under the circumstances.
